1. Business operations basic policy

The Group has carried out its operations on the basis of manufacturing of "value-packed products" to satisfy customers since its establishment with the motto "Develop products of superior value by focusing on the customer" in the first paragraph of its mission statement. The Group set "Create a Wow! Beyond customer expectation" as a vision for the Group and make effort to fulfill the motto.

The Group commits itself to make efforts to promote the "production of small and subcompact vehicles" and the "development of environmentally benign products" needed by customers, and "to be small, less, light, short and beautiful" on every side of organization, facilities, parts, environment and so on as well as production, with the slogan, "Small Cars for a Big Future", and has been working for the efficient, well-knit and healthy management.

2. Basic policies for profit distribution

We determine the profit distribution based on the performances, dividend payout ratio, strengthening of the corporate nature and full internal reserve for future business developments from the medium- to long-term viewpoint, with the emphasis on the continuous and stable distribution.

The Group has a structure in which profits are highly dependent on overseas manufacturing plants. They are mainly located in developing countries, and are therefore subject to exchange rate fluctuations. To achieve stable growth, we need to further enhance our corporate structure and prepare for unforeseen circumstances.

In future years, under the foregoing point of view, we will also determine the profit distribution based on the performance of fiscal year.

3. Significant accounting policies

* An amount less than 100 million yen has been rounded off in "financial review" section.

4. Risks in operations

Risks that may affect the management results, stock price and financial situation of The Group include the followings. Forward-looking statements in this section are based on our conclusions as of March 31, 2013.

Risk relating to markets

(1) Change in economic situations, demand fluctuation in the markets

The long term economic slowdown, world economic deterioration and financial crisis, and the reduced buying motivation of the consumers may lead to a substantially reduced demand for the products of The Group including motorcycles, automobiles and outboard motors.

In addition, we conduct businesses around the world, and our dependency on the overseas manufacturing plants especially in the developing countries of the Asian regions has been increasing over the years. The unexpected situation in these markets such as the rapid change in the economic situations may affect the performance of The Group. Further, unexpected change or new application of tax systems in each country may also affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(2) Severer competitions with other companies

We are facing competitions with rival companies in every global market where we conduct our businesses. As the automobiles and motorcycles industries in the world are globalized further, competitions may get harder. Competitions with other companies include various aspects such as product quality, safety, price, environmental performance, as well as efficiency of product development and manufacturing system, establishment of sales and service systems and sales finance.

We will make further efforts for maintaining and improving our competitive edges, but there may be risks that impede our competitive advantages.

Risk relating to business

(1) New product development and launching abilities

It is very important for an automobile and motorcycle manufacturer to correctly understand customer needs and to develop and launch to the market new attractive products that satisfy the customers in a timely manner. It has become more important than ever to understand customer needs that rapidly change, such as the reduced demands caused by domestic and overseas economic slowdown and the increased interest in the environmental performance.

In addition, launching of new products will require specific product development abilities as well as abilities to continually manufacture products in addition to appropriately understanding customer needs.

However, even if we are able to appropriately understand the customer needs, we may not be able to develop new products matching the customer needs in a timely manner on account of technical abilities, procurement of parts, production capabilities and other factors. If we are unable to launch products matching the customer needs to the market in a timely manner, the sales share and sales may be reduced, which may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(2) Change in product prices and purchase prices, dependence on specific suppliers

Various factors including a rapid change in demands, insufficient supply or price rise of specific parts and raw materials, unstable economic conditions, revisions of import regulations and harder price competition may rapidly change the product prices and purchase prices of The Group. There is no guarantee that such rapid price change does not last long or such change does not occur in the markets where there have not been such changes so far. Rapid changes in product prices and purchase prices may adversely affect the performance and financial positions of The Group in any market where we conduct our businesses. In addition, the procurement of some of the parts has been limited to specific suppliers on account of technical abilities, quality, and price competitiveness. If we are unable to obtain the parts continuously and stably on account of unforeseeable accidents of the suppliers, it may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(3) Business development in various countries in the world

We have been conducting our businesses in various countries in the world, and in some of the countries, we conduct joint ventures with local companies in accordance with local laws or other requirements. These businesses are restricted by various legal and other regulations in each country (including those related to tax, tariff, overseas investment and fund transfer to the home country). Any changes to such regulations, management policies of the joint venture partners or management environment may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(4) Fluctuations of exchange rates and interest rates

We export motorcycles, automobiles, outboard motors and related parts to various countries in the world from Japan. In addition, we export those products and parts from the overseas manufacturing plants to multiple other countries. Fluctuations of exchange rates may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group as well as our competitiveness.

Further, the exchange fluctuations will affect the price setting of the products sold by The Company in foreign currencies as well as the price of the raw materials purchased. The ratio of the overseas sales has reached 60 percent of consolidated sales for the current consolidated fiscal year, and transactions in foreign currencies account for significant part. We take hedging measures such as forward exchange contracts to reduce the risks of exchange-rates and interest-rates fluctuations, but it is impossible to hedge every risk, and the yen appreciation against other currencies may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group. On the contrary, the yen depreciation may result in opportunity losses.

(5) Government regulations

Various legal regulations are applied to the motorcycle, automobile and outboard motor industries in relation to the emission level of emission gas, mileage, noises, safety and contaminated material emission level from the manufacturing plants. These regulations may be revised, in many cases strengthened. Expenses to comply with these regulations may largely affect the performance of The Group.

In addition, many governments determine the imposition of tariffs, price control regulations and exchange control regulations. The Group is paying expenses to comply with these regulations and will expect to continue bearing them. We may pay more expenses depending on the establishment of new laws or changes of existing laws. Further, unexpected changes or new application of tax systems and economic measures of each country may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(6) Quality assurance

We place the top priority on the product safety and make efforts to establish the quality assurance system from development to sales. We buy insurance for the product liability, but there are risks not covered by insurance. The occurrence of large expenses for a large-scale recall to ensure safety of the customers may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(7) Alliance with other companies

We conduct various alliance activities with automobile manufacturer around the world and other companies for research and development, manufacturing, sales and finance, but factors that can not be controlled by The Group such as situations inherent to the alliance partners may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(8) Legal proceedings

We may become a party to lawsuits and other legal proceedings in the course of our business activities. In the case where any judgments disadvantageous to us are made in such legal proceedings, they may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

(9) Influences of natural disasters, wars, terrorism and strikes, etc.

The major manufacturing plants of The Group in Japan conduct manufacturing activities, located mainly in the Tokai region. In addition, the head office and other facilities of The Company are also concentrated in the Tokai region. Any occurrences of Tokai and Tonankai earthquake may largely affect adversely the performance and financial condition of The Group. We have taken various preventive measures such as quake-resistant measures for buildings and facilities, fire preventive measures, establishment of business recovery plans, purchases of earthquake insurances to minimize the influences of damage by such disasters. We also conduct businesses around the world and are subject to number of risks relating to our overseas operations. Such risks include political or social instability and difficulties, natural disasters, diseases, wars, terrorism and strikes. These unexpected events may delay or suspend the purchase of raw materials and parts, manufacturing, sales of products, logistics and provision of services. If such delay or suspension caused by any of these factors occur or prolong, they may adversely affect the performance and financial conditions of The Group.

Further, there are various risks other than those mentioned above, and what have been stated in this section do not represent all the risks of The Group.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

NOTE 1: Basis of presenting consolidated financial statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Suzuki Motor Corporation (The Company) have been prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles and practices in Japan, and the consolidated financial statements were filed with the Financial Services Agency as required by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires the management to select and adopt accounting standards and make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, revenue and expenses, and the corresponding methods of disclosure.

As such, the management's estimates are made reasonably based on historical results. But due to the inherent uncertainty involved in making estimates, actual results could differ from these estimates.

For the convenience of readers outside Japan, certain reclassifications and modifications have been made to the original consolidated financial statements.

As permitted, an amount of less than one million yen has been omitted. For the convenience of readers, the consolidated financial statements, including the opening balance of shareholders' equity, have been presented in U.S. dollars by translating all Japanese yen amounts on the basis of 94.05 to U.S. $1, the rate of exchange prevailing as of March 29, 2013. Consequently, the totals shown in the consolidated financial statements (both in yen and in U.S. dollars) do not necessarily agree with the sum of the individual amounts.

NOTE 2: Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements for the years ended March 31, 2013 and 2012, include the accounts of The Company and its significant subsidiaries and the number of consolidated subsidiaries are 135 and 138 respectively. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation. Investments in affiliated companies are accounted for by the equity method.

The difference at the time of acquisition between the cost and underlying net equity of investments in consolidated subsidiaries (goodwill) and in affiliated companies accounted for under the equity method is, as a rule, amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of five years after appropriate adjustments.

The account settlement date of 30 consolidated subsidiaries is December 31, but Magyar Suzuki Corporation Ltd. and 4 others are consolidated based on the financial statements of provisional account settlement as of March 31. Other 25 subsidiaries are consolidated with the financial statements based on their respective account settlement date.

The account settlement date of other consolidated subsidiaries is the same as the consolidated account settlement date.

(b) Allowance for doubtful accounts

In order to allow for loss from bad debts, estimated uncollectible amount based on actual ratio of bad debt is appropriated as to general receivable. As for specific receivable with higher default possibility, possibility of collection is estimated respectively and uncollectible amount is appropriated.

(c) Provision for product warranties

The provision is appropriated into this account based on the warranty agreement and past experience in order to allow for expenses related to the maintenance service of products sold.

(d) Provision for recycling expenses

The provision is appropriated for an estimated expense related to the recycle of products of The Company based on actual sales.

(e) Provision for product liabilities

With regards to the products exported to North American market, to prepare for the payment of compensation, not covered by "Product Liability Insurance" the anticipated amount to be borne by The Company is computed and provided on the basis of actual results in the past.

(f) Short-term investment securities and Investment securities

The Company and its subsidiaries hold securities of listed companies, which have a risk of price fluctuations, and non-listed companies whose stock prices are difficult to be evaluated.

If we judge the decline in investment value is not temporary, we recognize revaluation loss based on the reasonable standard. If the stock market falls, we may incur significant loss on valuation of securities.

Securities have to be classified into four categories: trading securities; held-to-maturity debt securities; investments of The Company in equity securities issued by consolidated subsidiaries and affiliates; and available-for-sale securities.

According to this classification, securities held by The Company and its subsidiaries are available-for-sale securities. Available-for-sale securities for which market quotations are available are stated at market value method based on the market values as of the consolidated account settlement date (The evaluation differences shall be reported as a component of net assets, and sales costs shall be calculated mainly by the moving average method).

Available-for-sale securities for which market quotations are unavailable are stated at cost by a moving average method.

(g) Hedge accounting

Gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the derivatives designated as "hedging instruments" are deferred until the gains and losses on the hedged items or transactions are recognized.

If foreign currency forward contracts meet certain criteria, exceptional hedge accounting is applied and these contracts are handled together with hedged items.

The derivatives designated as hedging instruments by The Company and its subsidiaries are principally forward exchange contracts, interest swaps and cross currency interest rate swaps. The related hedged items are foreign currency denominated transaction and borrowings.

The Company and its subsidiaries have a policy to utilize the above hedging instruments in order to reduce our exposure to the risk of interest rate and foreign exchange fluctuation. Thus, our purchases of the hedging instruments are limited to, at maximum, the amounts of the hedged items. The Company and its subsidiaries evaluate effectiveness of its hedging activities by reference to the accumulated gains or losses on the hedging instruments and the related hedged items from the commencement of the hedges.

(h) Foreign currency translation

All monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, whether long-term or short-term are translated into Japanese yen at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Resulting gains and losses are included in net income or loss for the period.

Assets and liabilities of the foreign subsidiaries and affiliates are translated into Japanese yen at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date.

The components of net assets are translated into Japanese yen at their historical rates. Profit and loss accounts for the year are translated into Japanese yen using the average exchange rate during the year. Differences in yen amounts arising from the use of different rates are presented as "foreign currency translation adjustments" and "minority interests" in the net assets.

(i) Inventories

Stated at cost mainly determined by the gross average method (Figures on the consolidated balance sheet are measured by the method of book devaluation based on the reduction of profitability)

(j) Method of depreciation and amortization of significant depreciable assets

a. Property, plant and equipment (excluding lease assets)

...... Mainly declining balance method for The Company and domestic subsidiaries and mainly straight-line

ethod for foreign subsidiaries
Main durable years are as follows
Buildings and structures	3 to 75 years
Machinery, equipment and vehicles	3 to 15 years

b. Intangible assets (excluding lease assets) Straight line method

m

c. Lease assets

Finance lease which transfer ownership

..... The same method as depreciation and amortization of self-owned noncurrent assets.

Finance lease which do not transfer ownership

(k) Income taxes

The provision for income taxes is computed based on the income before income taxes included in the consolidated statements of income. The assets and liability approach is adopted to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities. In making a valuation for the possibility of collection of deferred tax assets, The Company and its subsidiaries estimate their future taxable income reasonably. If the estimated amount of future taxable income decrease, deferred tax assets may decrease and income taxes expenses may be posted.

Consolidated tax payment has been applied to The Company and its domestic wholly owned subsidiaries since FY 2011.

(I) Retirement benefits

In order to allow for payment of employees' retirement benefits, based on estimated amount of retirement benefits liabilities and pension assets at the end of the current consolidated fiscal year, the allowable amount which occurs at the end of the current consolidated fiscal year is appropriated.

With regard to prior service costs, the amount, prorated on a straight line basis over the certain period within average length of employees' remaining service years at the time when it occurs, is treated as expense. As for the actuarial differences, the amounts prorated on a straight line basis over the certain period within average length of employees' remaining service years in each fiscal year in which the differences occur are respectively treated as expenses from the next term of the fiscal year in which they arise.

As for Directors and Company Auditors of The Company, the amount to be paid at the end of fiscal year had been posted pursuant to The Company's regulations on the retirement allowance of Directors and Company Auditors. However, The Company's retirement benefit system for them was abolished at the closure of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 2006. And it was approved at Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders that reappointed Directors and Company Auditors were paid their retirement benefit at the time of their retirement, based on their years of service. Estimated amount of such retirement benefits is appropriated at the end of the current consolidated fiscal year.

Furthermore, for the Directors and Company Auditors of some consolidated subsidiaries, the amount to be paid at the end of the year was posted pursuant to their regulation on the retirement allowance of Directors and Company Auditors.

Retirement benefit cost and retirement benefit obligation are calculated based on the actuarial assumptions, which include discount rate, assumed return of investment ratio, revaluation ratio, salary rise ratio, retirement ratio and mortality ratio. Discount rate is decided on the basis of yield on low-risk, long-term bonds, and assumed return of investment ratio is decided based on the investment policies of pension assets of each pension system etc.

Decreased yield on long-term bond leads to a decrease in discount rate and has an adverse influence on the calculation of retirement benefit cost. However, the pension system adopted by The Company has a cash balance type plan, and thus the revaluation ratio, which is one of the base ratios, can reduce adverse effects caused by a decrease in the discount rate. If the investment yield of pension assets is less than the assumed return of investment ratio, it will have an adverse effect on the calculation of retirement benefit cost. But by focusing on low-risk investments, this influence should be minimal in the case of the pension fund systems of The Company and its subsidiaries.

(m) Provision for disaster

Reasonably estimated amount is appropriated for anticipated loss mainly caused by relocation of plants and facilities located in the Ryuyo Region in Iwata City, Shizuoka Prefecture where massive tsunami damages caused by Tokai and Tonankai Earthquake are anticipated.

(n) Provision for loss on liquidation of subsidiaries and affiliates

Reasonably estimated amount is appropriated for anticipated loss caused by liquidation and restructuring of businesses operated by subsidiaries and affiliates.

(o) Revenue recognition

Sales of products are generally recognized in the accounts as deliveries are made.

(p) Net income per share

Primary net income per share is computed based on the weighted average number of shares issued during the respective years. Fully diluted net income per share is computed assuming that all convertible bonds were converted into common stock, with an applicable adjustment for related interest expense and net of tax. Cash dividends per share are the amounts applicable to the respective periods including dividends to be paid after the end of the period.

(q) Cash and cash equivalents

All highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased are considered cash and cash equivalents.

(r) Reclassification

Certain reclassifications of previously reported amounts are made to conform with current classifications.

NOTE 3: Changes in Accounting Principles and Accounting Estimates

Change in Accounting Principles which is difficult to be distinguished from Changes in Accounting Estimates

In accordance with revisions of the Corporation Tax Act, The Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries have revised the method of depreciation which is based on the revised Corporation Tax Act for property, plant and equipment acquired on or after April 1, 2012 from this fiscal year.

The impact of this change on operating income, ordinary income and income before income taxes was immaterial.

NOTE 4: Financial Instruments

(a) Matters for conditions of financial instruments

a. Policy for financial instruments

As for the fund management, The Group uses short-term deposits and short-term investment securities, and as for the fund-raising, The Group uses borrowings from financial institutions such as banks and issuance of bonds. The Group uses derivatives to hedge and manage the risks of interest-rates and exchange-rates fluctuations, and does not use derivatives for speculation purposes.

b. Type of financial instruments, risks and risk management

With respect to customers' credit risks from operating receivables such as notes and accounts receivables-trade, in order to mitigate the risks, The Group identifies credit standing of major counterparties and manages due date and receivable balance of each counterparty in line with our rules and regulations for credit control. The Group hedges risks of exchange-rate fluctuations from operating receivables denominated in foreign currency by forward exchange contract in principle.

Investment securities are mainly stocks of companies with which The Group has business relationship, and as for listed stocks, The Group quarterly identifies those fair values and reports them to the Board of Directors. Most of accounts payable-trade are due within one year.

Applications of borrowings are fund for operating capital (mainly short-term) and capital expenditures (long-term), and The Group uses interest-rate swaps for the interest rate risks of some long-term borrowings to fix interest expenses. Also, The Group uses cross currency interest rate swaps for fluctuation of exchange rate in repayment of principle and interest rate risk to fix cash flow.

Objectives of derivative transactions are foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the risks of exchange-rate fluctuations related to receivables denominated in foreign currencies, interest rate swaps to hedge the risks of fluctuation in interest rate related to borrowings, and cross currency interest rate swaps to hedge the risk of fluctuation in exchange rate and interest rate related to borrowings. The Group executes and manages derivatives within the actual demand in line with our rules and regulations which set out the authority to trade. In addition, in using derivatives, The Group deals with financial institutions which have high credit grade in order to reduce credit risks. With respect to hedge accounting, also please see Note 2 (g).

In addition, each of The Group company manages liquidity risk related to accounts payable and borrowings by making a financial plan.

c. Supplement to fair values of financial instruments

Fair values of financial instruments include values based on quoted prices in active markets and values assessed by rational valuation techniques in case quoted prices are not available. Because the rational valuation techniques include variable factors, the results of valuation may differ when different assumption is applied.

(b) Matters for fair values of the financial instruments

(*): Assets or liabilities derived from derivatives are shown on a net basis and net liabilities are shown as ().

*1. Matters for methods used to measure fair values of financial instruments

Assets:

a. Cash and deposits

Because fair values of deposits are approximately equal to the book values, book values are used as fair values.

b. Notes and accounts receivables-trade

Fair values of sales finance receivables are calculated on the discount method by the expected rate applied to new loan contract, on each receivable classified into a certain term.

Notes and accounts receivables-trade except sales finance are settled in short term and those fair values are approximately equal to the book values. So book values are used as fair values.

c. Short-term investment securities and Investment securities

These fair values are prices of the stock exchanges. Also please see Note 2 (f).

Liabilities:

a. Accounts payable-trade, Short-term loans payable and Accrued Expenses

Because these are settled in short term and those fair values are approximately equal to the book values, such book values are used.

b. Current portion of long-term loans payable and Long-term loans payable

These fair values are measured by discounting based on the estimated interest rates at which similar new loans with same amount of principal and interest could have been borrowed.

c. Current portion of bonds with subscription rights to shares

Fair values of current portion of bonds with subscription rights to shares are measured based on the market value.

Derivatives:

Please refer to Note 4 (d) Derivative transactions

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Suzuki Motor Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries as at March 31, 2013, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.
