

6 February, 2015

Suzuki unveils iK-2 and iM-4 concept models at the 85th Geneva International Motor Show

iK-2

iM-4

Suzuki Motor Corporation will display two world-premiere concept models at the 85th Geneva Motor Show next month.

iK-2

The iK-2 is an ideal compact sized car, developed with an innovative theme of “Harmonised Force”. By combining all of the key elements expected in a car of this size the new model raises compact car values to the limit.

iM-4

The iM-4 is an iconic mini 4x4 developed with a concept theme of “Shape the Inspiration”. It is an all-new proposal from Suzuki, packed with its compact 4x4 DNA and new technologies as well as distinctive styling that will give real inspiration to drivers.

Detailed information will be disclosed at the Suzuki press conference, scheduled on Tuesday, 3rd March 2015 at 11:15 am

On stand 4251, in hall 4

A special website is available on <http://www.globalsuzuki.com/geneva2015/>

The 85th Geneva International Motor Show will be open to the press on 3rd and 4th March and then to the general public from 5th to 15th March.*