

17 October 2025

Notice regarding Change in Organization and Personnel

Suzuki Motor Corporation will make the following change in organization and personnel as of 1 November 2025.

1. Change in organization

[Corporate Planning]

- Corporate Sustainability Project will be newly established.

2. Change in responsibility of officer

| New                                                                                                                                   | Name           | Current                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Managing Officer,Executive General Manager,Corporate Planning,and Project Manager,Corporate SustainabilityProject | Junya Kumataki | Managing Officer,Executive General Manager,Corporate Planning |

3. Change in personnel

[Corporate Planning]

| New                                                                            | Name         | Current                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Division Manager in Chargeof Cost Planning,Corporate Strategy Division | Yukinori Ota | Division Manager in Chargeof Procurement Strategy andInfrastructure Promotion,Procurement Strategy |

[Motorcycle Operations]

| New                                                                                                       | Name                | Current                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Division Manager in Chargeof Product Planning,Motorcycle Marketing &Product Planning Division | Yoshisato Tokumitsu | Division Manager in Charge,Mono-Zukuri PromotionDivision,Manufacturing |

End