Suzuki Remains a Constituent of the FTSE4Good Index Series, FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index, and FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index for ESG Investments

Suzuki Motor Corporation (hereinafter Suzuki) has remained a constituent of ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) investment indexes provided by the global index provider FTSE Russell, the FTSE4Good Index Series and the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index for the third consecutive year, and the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index for the fifth consecutive year.

Since its founding, Suzuki has grown by providing products and services that meet the diverse needs of customers in different countries and regions, guided by its founding spirit of helping solve customers' needs and challenges. To continue growing together with all stakeholders, the company is committed to sincerely addressing social issues, including respect for human rights, in addition to environmental initiatives. Through balancing the resolution of social issues with business growth, Suzuki will pursue the sustainable enhancement of corporate value.

<About FTSE Russell ESG investment index>

Created by FTSE Russell, a wholly owned subsidiary of London Stock Exchange Group, the FTSE4Good Index Series and FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index are designed to measure the performance of companies demonstrating strong ESG practices. The indexes are used by a wide variety of market participants to create and assess responsible investment funds and other products. FTSE Russell evaluations are based on performance in areas such as Corporate Governance, Health & Safety, Anti-Corruption and Climate Change. Businesses included in FTSE4Good Index Series and FTSE Blossom Japan Index meet a variety of environmental, social and governance criteria.

The FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index is designed as a sector neutral benchmark that reflects the performance of companies demonstrating strong ESG practices in Japan. The index supports the climate transition to a low-carbon economy by evaluating companies' efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, in addition to their climate governance and climate change initiatives.

The FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index and FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index are adopted by the world's largest pension fund, Government Pension Investment Fund (GPIF), for ESG investments.
