2. Reason

The Company aims to return to our mid- to long-term shareholders through enhancing corporate value and progressive dividends.

Specifically, the Company aims to enhance corporate value by actively making growth investments mainly in expanding production capacity to meet the increasing demand in India and technology development towards energy minimization, thereby realizing our mid-term management plan. In addition, regarding shareholder returns, the Company will provide stable and consistent dividends based on the concept of progressive dividends.

Based on this policy, the year-end dividend for FY2024 has been set at 21 yen per share, with the annual dividend of 41 yen per share. The annual dividend increased by 10.5 yen (34.4%) compared to 30.5 yen (after stock split) for FY2023.

As announced in the mid-term management plan "By Your Side" released on February 20, 2025, the Company will newly adopt DOE as an appropriate indicator for progressive dividends from FY2025, and the Company will strengthen shareholder returns by raising DOE level to 3.0%.

(Reference) Breakdown of Annual Dividend
